

March 15, 2026

GOOD MORNING, thank you for joining us today!

9 AM - Sunday School

9:45 AM - Praise & Worship - Gene Beachy

Message - Isaiah 117 - Jason Miller

MONTHLY MISSION for March is Isaiah 117

CHRIST & HIS SAINTS

A group of men were introduced to a difficult dilemma that required them to make a difficult decision. After giving it to Jesus in prayer, they responded with their decision. Just one week later, the Lord used that interaction as a point of connection to share about the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Praise the Lord for working in all sorts of ways, including the situations that we least expect. God is good all of the time! All of the time God is good!
Psalms 66:5

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PLEASE PASS BY THE bulletin board in the lobby to see information about upcoming events you may be interested in attending. Also, notice the table in the lobby has different opportunities for you to sign up for.

A REMINDER FOR THOSE attending ladies retreat next Friday & Saturday. Please bring an appetizer for Friday evening supper. Also, on Saturday please bring a hammer with you if you have one.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED at the Middlebury Food Pantry. April is our month to help. We will help pack the food and take it out to the vehicles. Please consider signing up. See Joseph Parks after the service today.

FOR THE PAST two years Living Hope has partnered with Waterford Elementary School as a support church (this is the school that many of our Bible Club participants attend). We are looking for someone to coordinate this in order to continue doing it. Please see Jeff or Dianne Martin if you are interested.

BENTON ELEMENTARY has a Haystack Dinner fundraiser on Thursday evening, March 19 from 5-7 PM. Dine-in or carry out is available. Money raised will be donated to Isaiah 117 House in Elkhart County which is our church's mission this month!
